RE: People v Andrew Maurice Randolph
Michigan Supreme Court No. 153309
Court of Appeals No. 321551
Genesee County Circuit Court No. 13-033003-FC

Dear Clerk:

On March 8, 2016, the Genesee County Prosecutor's Office received Defendant-Appellant's Application for Leave to Appeal the Court of Appeals' opinion in the above-captioned matter. On review of the Application, we are of the opinion that Defendant's arguments do not necessitate a formal response. Due to our substantial caseload, the time pressures placed upon us, and our limited staff and resources, the People rely on all of our previously filed extensive briefs in the Court of Appeals as well as the Court of Appeals' well-reasoned and detailed opinion as counter arguments to Defendant's positions. In our humble opinion, the Court of Appeals' decision is correct and adequately addresses all of Defendant's contentions. In reliance on our aforementioned briefs and the Court of Appeals' opinion, we respectfully ask this Court to deny Defendant's Application. However, should we be mistaken as to the merits of Defendant's contentions, we respectfully request that this Honorable Court direct us to respond in the appropriate manner, and we will be willing to do so.

Respectfully,

DAVID S. LEYTON
PROSECUTING ATTORNEY
GENESEE COUNTY
